

Speaker Biography

Ian Praine

Head of Risk Management & Controlling, Surrey Satellite Technology Ltd

Ian has more than 21 years experience in the Satellite manufacturing industry, original as structural engineer, but mainly in Project Management and Project Financial controlling, before taking on his current role with SSTL overseeing tendering process, and management of risk, including Space insurance risk. He is currently responsible for all insurance matters, particularly the placement of Launch and in orbit Insurance.

Ian has experience in in telecoms, Earth Observation, Science and interplanetary Missions.

Ian is responsible for the implementation of the SSTL bid process and ensuring that all bids have been properly reviewed, approved by SSTL can be delivered by the company at the specification, schedule and price proposed.

Contact Details:

E-mail : i.praine@sstl.co.uk

